Sue Reich Biography

Sue Reich is a quiltmaker, author, speaker, independent quilt researcher and appraiser. She began her study of quilt history with the Connecticut Quilt Search Project in 1991 and has served on the board since it's beginning. A quiltmaker since childhood, she lectures widely on many aspects of quilt history, and is a certified AQS quilt appraiser. She co-authored Quilts and Quiltmakers Covering Connecticut, and she authored Quilting News of Yesteryear: One Thousand Pieces and Counting and Quilting News of Yesteryear: Crazy as a Bed-Quilt. She has written articles for Fons and Porters Love of Quilting magazine and the American Quilt Study Group's publication Blanket Statements. She has been guest curator at the New England Quilt Museum, the Museum of the American Quilter, the Litchfield Historical Society, the Mattatuck Museum, and the Gunn Museum. She has lectured at numerous museums and venues including The Quilter's Hall of Fame, The Museum of Science and Energy, Women's Creativity Conference Quinnipiac University, the Wethersfield Museum, the New England Quilt Museum and the Bruce Museum. Reich co-founded the Meetinghouse Quilters in Washington, Connecticut in 1989. She has served on the board of the American Quilt Study Group (2005-2011) and as its president (2008-2010).
